INVITATION

Roll up, Roll up for the Mystery Tour,
the Magical Mystery Tour.
Roll up, roll up for the Mystery Tour,
for it's coming to take you away.
Here's your invitation—
we've made the reservation,
the Mystery Tour will take you away.
The trip will be long
but you cannot go wrong,
with the chime bells ringing your way.
And so into the night,
you will glimpse a fast sight
of the Land of Alex, your place to stay.
There'll be euchre and dancing with Lilly Hall prancing with a sound-wave room on the side.
You'll find tricycle races, with many smiling faces and court cases held over stolen girls' laces,
all along the Magical Mystery Tour.
So roll up, roll up for the Mystery Tour,
we're ready to take you away.
And through glassless windows you'll plainly see the Mad Hatter's Annual Social and Tea.
And electric waterfalls with loud, jeering calls,
and formal dance balls with noted pitfalls—
a time unmatched will certainly be yours,
on the Magical Mystery Tour.
The Mystery Tour awaits you now
to wander here and there,
to pick a flower or feed a duck
or pass the kick, to drop and stare.
Before the journey is nearly done
ye weary travelers stop your Run.
The road is not yet smooth at all.
There stands an immediate Port of Call.
There is that one more mountain crest
that will have been your final Test.
Of test tubes, burners, textbooks, too,
float by Jordan secured by Meanies-in-Blue.
The Magical Mystery Tour comes true.
For you the travelers, the land will coast
through hoops and nets and over a Post, across the Land of Many Bands
to the famous C of Clubs.
And here you travelers will find the end of the Mystery Tour on which you're sent.
Or have you yet reached your Hour in Time
at the end of a four-year academic climb?
Rolled up, rolled up on the Mystery Tour—
the Magical Mystery Tour has taken you away.

"It's getting hard to be someone."

"Lift up your hearts and sing me a song."

THE BYRDS CONCERT

"How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?"

"And the eyes in his head see the world spinning round."

"You say yes, I say no, You say stop, I say go."

"I am he as you are he as you are me and we are all together."

JULIE NIXON EISENHOWER

SENATOR
EDWARD M. KENNEDY

"It doesn't matter much to me."

" . . . There's so many there to meet."

"Now that you know who you are,
what do you want to do?
And have you traveled very far?
Far as the eye can see."

—JOHN LENNON-PAUL McCARTNEY

SALLY BECK

"All entries will be final . . . in case of a tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded."

RICHARD E. CAUGER

Seemingly pretentious to most of us, but in reality, non-existent.

FRANK COOPER

Disorganized but very exciting.

NICHOLAS M. CRIPE

A chromium smile, usually over C-Club coffee.

JOSEFA CROWE

"Other profs apply violence to their students. I save it for the bugs in my organic garden."

WILLIAM S. DAWN

"I try to draw the students out . . . but I guess I'm as guilty as the rest for trying to stuff knowledge."

GEORGE GEIB

WC says, "less expansion, more experimentation at Butler."

BENJAMIN HADDOX

"I try to get a mutual trust and confidence between myself and my students." . . . and he does.

J. WILLIAM HEPLER

"I dream of the day when I can be a beachcomber or a mountain hermit."

JOSEPH KIRSCH

Remaining "a student until I die" . . . and he means it!

WILLIAM T. LAND

Our own token hippy prof.

CAROL J. MCMULLEN

With the professional fervor of Chet Huntley, she reads her Kiddie Lit.

NANCY MOORE

"Students are interested by the ideas with which the Mind of Man has always struggled."

T. JOSEPH MORRISON

Essentially, "a faculty interested in questions and thoughts."

WILLIAM NEHER

"Teaching is invigorating." . . . but Bill, this isn't Africa.

RICHARD OSBORNE

"I think they know I'm trying to do my part."

PHILLIP ST. JOHN

"I'm still not grown up yet."

STUART SILVERS

"I like to think that I'm doing something, but interest in the reading classes is basically intrinsic."

ESTHER STANTON

I project myself as I think he sees me, but that doesn't mean that he sees me the way I think he sees me, but then again . . .

EMMA LOU THORNBROUGH

The Lady is a Scholar . . . and a helluva nice one.

GEORGE M. WALLER

"Good students can learn anywhere and good teachers can teach anywhere." . . . Were you suggesting BU, George?

JACKSON B. WILEY

"I guess I care more because we need the good students here."

WILMA WOHLER

"To me, there is a richness in teaching."

GEORGE YEARSICH, DONNA BERKSHIRE

Student Body SuperStars.

"lucky to have so many good people in the dept.—it makes life easier" . . . Neher in for substitution—sabbatical for the smiling Dr. BENJAMIN HADDOX, SOCIOLOGY HEAD—emphasis on teaching rather than research . . . 60 Jrs. and Srs. with only four profs? . . . "comparable dept. with those in the top schools" . . . reflecting on the world of societies around us . . . contending with the Women's Lib movement. CHARLES HENZIE, GRADUATE MUSIC CHAIRMAN—"a paper division" . . . 27th year . . . was Marching Band Head for 20 years . . . 90 music, 10 dance, and 15 applied, theory, or history. J. WM. HEPLER, PSYCHOLOGY HEAD—"location of the dept. (in the basement) shows the status assigned to us by the University" . . . more experimental than applied . . . "strong, straight students" . . . "offered to give kids $2 for a haircut". VERGIL HIATT, CLASSICAL LANGUAGE HEAD—one man dept . . . at BU since '47 . . . another scholar retiring . . . archaeology, anthropology, history, and sociology are all needed to understand the Classics . . . "kind of a problem getting all the requirements". KAJ NIELSEN, MATHEMATICS HEAD—12 books, over 200 research papers, two patents, five articles in Grolier's Encyclopedia, National Science Foundation Visiting Scientist ('59-'63), in probably all honoraries relating to the field, listed in most directories and there's more . . . teaching and advising: "most important job". JOHN PELTON, BOTANY HEAD—"science building will provide for more independent research and attract more science students" . . . "try to adjust the programs to the students' objectives through advising" . . . friendliness and flowers. LT. COL. JOHN POWELL, BUAFROTC COMMANDANT—commissioning second lieutenants . . . bringing the volunteer army (well, Air Force) home to BU . . . two or four year programs leading men to the skies . . . "dedication to assignments, responsibility, creative and critical thinking". PAUL QUINNEY, CHEMISTRY HEAD—all PhD. dept . . . "chief lab assistant, chief stockroom man, chief anything-we-need" . . . "best damned dept. in the school". PHILIP ST. JOHN, ZOOLOGY HEAD—"Chemistry dept. is probably the second best dept. in the school" . . . another prof anxiously awaiting Science Building . . . "alotta paper work to do". GEORGE WALLER, HISTORY HEAD—scholars all . . . books, articles, and witty lecturers = national recognition . . . "the offerings are of the highest quality" . . . a staff of 10—plus one Dean. GEORGE WILLEFORD, DRAMA CHAIRMAN—showman to the hilt . . . eight public performances a year . . . for professional or educating careers . . . one of the Jordan Four. WILMA WOHLER, HOME ECONOMICS HEAD—both lab and lecture . . . cultural aspects of food and clothing . . . foods/nutrition, textiles/clothing, interior decorating, child development consumer education . . . building independence and self-reliance. GEORGE VERDAK, DANCE CHAIRMAN—students' opinion: "a genius", "a true artist" . . . painting and piano . . . ballet comes first . . . students have to be accepted twice to dance for him.

ACCEPTANCE

Though you were born a long, long time ago . . .
How does it feel now that you know who you are—one of the Butler People.
What did you see when you were there?
"Nothing that doesn't show."
There beneath the blue, suburban sky, I sat;
the man of a thousand voices talking perfectly loud, saw the sun going down, but nobody heard me or the sound I appeared to make—I never even noticed.
Let's all get up and dance to a song and please don't be very long,
soon will be the break of a new dawn,
sitting here in Butler Way.
We've taken you away in magic and mystery,
the eyes in your head have seen the world spinning round.
You can never go back to Strawberry Fields,
just keep walking down Sunset Lane.
And we ask you remember only this:
"And all together now,
there's nothing you can do that can't be done,
nothing you can sing that can't be sung,
nothing you can say, you can learn how to play the game.
It's easy.
Nothing you can make that can't be made,
no one you can save that can't be saved,
nothing you can do but you can learn how to feel inside.
Love.
Nothing you can know that isn't known,
nothing you can see that can't be shown,
nowhere you can be that isn't just plain ecstasy."
Forever.

—Lennon-McCartney

"We hope you enjoyed this show."

During Freshman orientation four years ago, Dr. Cripe made his usual reference to a football player who has difficulties adjusting his time after the season is over. This seems overly applicable to the DRIFT staff, however I doubt whether any will be able to get used to the freedom offered by the final deadline in Rm. 330. The staff worked with a diligence that I am unable to express in words, but possibly this book of black and white reflections will serve to show my appreciation to all. Very special thanks go to: Val, for moral support; Dave, for physical support; Patty M., for working more hours than she should have; Bob Stalcup, for personal inspiration; Dick Kennard, for patient guidance; Kent, for prints; Stanley and Patty S., for giving 100% and making this book a reality; and finally to Pieter V. S., Corny Newbold, Ron Weeks, John Claxton, Bob Marks, and Janet McKown, for making it possible for me to write this letter.
